

David Kochman
Chief Corporate Affairs Officer
Henry Schein, Inc.

David Kochman serves as Chief Corporate Affairs Officer for Henry Schein, Inc., a Fortune 500 Company and the world's largest provider of health care solutions to office-based dental and medical practitioners. In that position he is responsible for a diverse array of the Company's global corporate functions, including Communications, Professional Relations and Strategic Partnerships, Government Relations, Public Policy, Sustainability and Corporate Social Responsibility, Team Engagement, Customer and Employee Experience, Creative Services, and Corporate Events activities, as well as the management and administration of projects and initiatives originating from the Office of the CEO.

Previously, David acted as the General Counsel and Corporate Development Officer for a privately held company in the regulated consumer products industry and was a Partner in the New York office of the international law firm Reed Smith. Before law school, David worked in Jerusalem for the Deputy Speaker of the Israeli Knesset. David is actively involved with charitable organizations focused on health care and criminal justice, and currently serves on the Board of Directors of both MedShare International (Atlanta) and The Fortune Society (NYC), as well as the NYU Dental Dean's Strategic Council, University of Michigan School of Dentistry Dean's Advisory Board, Penn Dental Medicine Board of Advisors, and Temple University School of Dentistry Board of Visitors. David has represented death row inmates in post-conviction proceedings and has received numerous awards recognizing his dedication to public service.

David received his B.A. in Philosophy from Emory University and his J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.