

Kristen Meszaros
Director, North American Training & Development
Henry Schein, Inc.

Kristen Meszaros is the Director of North American Sales Training and Leadership Development for Henry Schein's Medical and Dental divisions, bringing nearly 20 years of experience in health care sales, leadership development, and performance enablement. She leads enterprise training strategies that accelerate performance, strengthen leadership capability, and support long-term business growth.

Kristen played a key role in the design and launch of the Dallas Discovery Center, creating a national hub to develop talent, scale best practices, and elevate the learning experience across the organization.